2011 C4A ANNUAL MEETING AND ALLIED CONFERENCE

The California Association of Area Agencies on Aging (C4A) is proud to present the 2011 Annual Meeting and Allied Conference. The conference features informative and educational programs, meaningful exhibits, and inspirational speakers – a collaborative effort among consumers, community-based service providers, state and local health and human services agencies and area agencies on aging.

The C4A Meeting and Allied Conference is the largest and the only integrated conference for aging and long term care in California; bringing together a variety of multidisciplinary professionals from the fields of aging and long term care, education and behavioral health. This year's conference will showcase the most innovative and effective best practices in California, will provide technical assistance, training and professional development, as well as a forum for a discussion on priority aging policy and issues for advocacy, and will provide an excellent opportunity to network with peers, share ideas and develop new connections.

CONFERENCE PROVIDES:

- Technical assistance, training, and professional development
- Scheduled organizational meetings
- Intensives, in-depth training for specific programs, and informative workshops
- Networking opportunities and interaction among disciplines
